PRAISE HIM

Refrain
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, He’s worthy to be praised.

Verse I
From the rising of the sun
until the going down of the same,
He’s worthy, Jesus is worthy,
He’s worthy to be praised.
(Repeat Refrain)

Verse II
God is our rock, hope of salvation;
A strong deliverer, in Him will I trust.
Glory! Glory! In all things give Him glory.
Jesus, blessed Savior, He’s worthy to be praised.
(Repeat Refrain)

WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS

Verse I
What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Ev’ry thing to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Ev’ry thing to God in prayer!

Verse II
Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our ev’ry weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Verse III
Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our refuge,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He’ll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.
PSALM 103 (NRSV)

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name. 2. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and do not forget all his benefits—

3. who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, 4. who redeems your life from the Pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, 5. who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s. 6. The Lord works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed. 7. He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel. 8. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

9. He will not always accuse, nor will he keep his anger forever. 10. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. 11. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; 12. as far as the east is from the west, so far he removes our transgressions from us.

13. As a father has compassion for his children, so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him. 14. For he knows how we were made; he remembers that we are dust. 15. As for mortals, their days are like grass; they flourish like a flower of the field; 16. for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more. 17. But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children’s children, 18. to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. 19. The Lord has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

20. Bless the Lord, O you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding, obedient to his spoken word. 21. Bless the Lord, all his hosts, his ministers that do his will.

22. Bless the Lord, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the Lord, O my soul.
his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. 14I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

GENESIS 18:1–15
(NRSV)
1The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. 2He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. 3He said, “My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. 4Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. 5Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant.” So they said, “Do as you have said.” 6And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.” 7Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. 8Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate. 9They said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.” 10Then one said, “I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him. 11Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. 12So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, “After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?” 13The Lord said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, and say, “Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?” 14Is anything too wonderful for the Lord? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son.” 15But Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. He said, “Oh yes, you did laugh.”

What’s Goin’ On?

Marvin Gaye’s powerful “message song” is a song that made him famous because it went against the “Motown entertainment rule.” It raised serious questions about the culture, the country and governmental policy.

The President, who is “staying the course” and sending 21,500 more troops to their death has issued a veto threat against the measure and there is no public outcry and no media outrage.

His song raised questions about Black-on-Black violence, about drugs, about war and about the way in which we were living (or not living) in a very difficult period of history.

I use his words today on the third Sunday of a New Year to keep before you the painful truth of who we are and where it is we are in this racist United States of America! What’s goin’ on?

We have lost over 3,000 boys and girls in an illegal and unjust war, and the media is on a feeding frenzy about Barack Obama’s church. Where is the outrage about the 3,000 dead American military personnel and the 600,000 dead Iraqi civilians who are dead for no reason other than greed and ego? What’s goin’ on?

This past Wednesday, January 17th, the House of Representatives deliberated on a bill to cut interest rates on federally subsidized student loans. On Thursday, January 18th, the House of Representatives considered legislation that would repeal some royalties and tax incentives from the oil and gas industries and redistribute that money to alternative and renewable energy such as bio-fuels.

The media, however, is not covering that news. The media wants to know about Barack Obama’s pastor. What’s goin’ on?

On the weekend leading up to Dr. Martin Luther King’s birthday, the House of Representatives passed a bill requiring the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services to negotiate drug prices for the Medicare program. The President who is “staying the course” and sending 21,500 more troops to their death has issued a veto threat against the measure and there is no public outcry and no media outrage. What’s goin’ on?
The President’s “New Plan” (more troops, more death and more war) promises an insane escalation — in Iraq, Iran and beyond! With the torture of Abu Ghraib, the complete destructions of cities like Fallujah and over 600,000 deaths due to collateral damage, the President complained in his speech that there had been “too many restrictions” on the actions of the United States Forces in the Iraq war.

The President’s “New Plan” (more troops, more death and more war) promises an insane escalation — in Iraq, Iran and beyond!

Am I the only one who heard that? What’s goin’ on?

I celebrate forty years of ordained ministry this weekend. I bask in the 40-year glow of God’s Grace, God’s forgiveness and God’s lessons about humility.

The e-mails that I have been getting this week, the news clippings that I am being sent and the racist blogs that are flooding the Internet make me know, however, that even as I bask, the work ahead for the church of Jesus Christ is just as serious and difficult today (if not more so) as it was forty years ago when I was ordained during the Vietnamese War!

The President tries to frame the justification for his insanity by using language describing the debate in this country over the war as “a great struggle between those who believe in freedom in moderation and extremists who kill the innocent.”

The reality, however, is that the entire war in Iraq and the larger “war on terror” have been based on lies, half-truths and distortions to serve the agenda of the United States imperialism. Where is the public outcry? Where is the outrage? What’s goin’ on?

There is more focus on what the Bears may or may not do as they play a football game against New Orleans than there is on the 3,000 homeless who are still living or displaced in the real life game called “New Orleans.”

Those poor Black and white displaced citizens of New Orleans (not imported team members playing for New Orleans), who have no place to go and no place to live because of this administration’s illegal war and its billions of dollars wasted on prosecuting that war, join with me in asking, “What’s goin’ on?”

Excuse me! The victims of Hurricane Katrina are no longer on the radar screen of the media. Only Barack, his church, his pastor and white arrogance!

I invite your sincere prayers this weekend. The generation of ministers behind me has its work cut out for them in some incredible and overwhelming ways!

Sincerely yours,
n late 2006, Cook County Board President Todd Stroger ordered all County Departments to cut their budgets by 17% by the end of February. This demand by President Stroger has caused an uproar on both sides of the issue by proponents and opponents of the cuts. Proponents of the cuts state that the county must make the cuts in order not to raise taxes as the county is $500 million in debt. President Stroger has acknowledged that the cuts will be painful, yet they are necessary.

However, opponents of the cuts particularly detail the effects it will have on poor people, especially with regard to health care. Budget cuts put forth by President Stroger reveal the elimination of 1,492 Cook County jobs. According to the Chicago Sun-Times, dated Wednesday, January 17, 2007, other initial features of the budget cuts include:

- Laying off about 450 of the county’s 25,575 employees, while eliminating about 1,000 vacant jobs
- More than $100 million in unidentified cuts that still must come
- Closing 16 health clinics, including those in schools, Phoenix, Harvey, and those on the West Side, Woodlawn and Near South Side of Chicago
- Obstetrics and gynecology services no longer available at Provident Hospital; most surgeries only available at Stroger Hospital; outpatient-only services at Provident and Oak Forest hospitals
  - $20 million less for sheriff court services and police
  - $2.2 million less for felony trial prosecutions
  - 11 fewer victim’s witness assistants

It appears that books are always balanced on the back of the poor. Keeping people healthy should be a priority of the city and county. I am aware that budgets must be balanced; however, I am also aware that far too many times, the poor are sacrificed in order to balance budgets and societies. The question must be asked, What will happen to the people who utilize the clinics that will be closing in poor neighborhoods, and poor schools? Are they just left for dead? Just as most of the poor people in New Orleans had no way to get out of town, many poor people have no way to get to the clinics and hospitals if those in their neighborhoods or schools close. Closing community clinics and school-based health centers will force over 339,000 residents to seek care from other sources that are already overburdened. This means children may not receive immunizations, women will go without prenatal care and more people will rely on expensive emergency rooms for primary care.

I urge you to contact your County Commissioner, and urge them to find another way to balance the budget without decreasing services to the poor and indigent, especially in the way of health care. I also urge you to attend the Cook County Budget Hearings to let your voice be heard.

Below you will find the names of the County Commissioners. You may find out your County Commissioner by going to www.co.cook.il.us/commissioners.htm or by calling, 312-603-6398. Below the names, you will also find dates and times for Cook County Public Budget hearings.

STEWARDSHIP

THE RESULTS OF A REDEEMED LIFE

YOUNG PEOPLE SPEAK OUT ABOUT GIVING TO GOD

“I’ve always given part of my money to the church, but I haven’t always been too careful with the part I’ve kept. Now I realize that just giving isn’t enough. I’m also trying to spend what I keep in a way that would please Christ.”

“Boy, I have to work for my money, and I have to manage it, too. No sponging off my folks, not even for church. At first it was hard to make sure I had enough left for God. But I’ve fixed that — I take God’s part out first.”

“I’ll be getting married soon, and John and I have ideas about a home and family. We’re going to have to watch our money pretty closely, but we don’t want to leave God out. So we’re going to have a planned budget that includes the church.”

“Money? Well, I don’t have very much. I still go to school. I do go baby-sitting to get a little extra money, but that’s all. Church? Yes, of course! I can’t give a whole lot, but I know God doesn’t expect more than I can do.”

Each of us has special gifts that we have received from God. We are grateful for God’s goodness to us. We are so grateful that we want to use these gifts as God would have us use them — in service to Him and our fellow humans. We don’t have much money, but what we do have comes from God, whether it is from an allowance or a job. We are careful how we use our money, too. We first dedicate a part of it to God.

We must always remember that in the sight of God, the gift is not as important as the giver. The spirit in which we give is what counts. We give from hearts full of love and gratitude. We give generously; we give prayerfully. Thus, our gifts and our lives are acceptable unto the Lord.

“There are different ways of serving, but the same Lord is served.”
1 Corinthians 12:5 (TEV)
A God of Restoration

My heartfelt hope for the congregation in the year 2007 is that each member will fully embrace what it means to be loved by a God who restores.
God is a God of redemption and not a God of condemnation.

Isaiah 40 (NIV)

January
Isaiah 40:1-2 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her hard service has been completed, that her sin has been paid for, that she has received from the LORD’s hand double for all her sins.

February
Isaiah 40:4–5 “Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all mankind together will see it. For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

March
Isaiah 40:11 He tends his flock like a shepherd: He gathers the lambs in his arms and carries them close to his heart; he gently leads those that have young.

April
Isaiah 40:18 To whom, then, will you compare God? What image will you compare him to?

May
Isaiah 40:21 Do you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood since the earth was founded?

June
Isaiah 40:25 “To whom will you compare me? Or who is my equal?” says the Holy One.

July
Isaiah 40:26 Lift your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these? He who brings out the starry host one by one, and calls them each by name. Because of his great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing.

August
Isaiah 40:27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and complain, O Israel, “My way is hidden from the LORD; my cause is disregarded by my God”?

September
Isaiah 40:28 Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom.

October
Isaiah 40:29 He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

November
Isaiah 40:30 Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall;

December
Isaiah 40:31 But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.
